MEDIA ALERT

August 21, 2014

Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam – Galerie Quynh is pleased to present “drop” – a group exhibition of work by Tiffany Chung, Ha Manh Thang, Sandrine Llouquet, Nguyen Manh Hung, Tran Van Thao, Truc-Anh and Lien Truong.

Featuring a number of new and recent works never before seen at the gallery, the exhibition brings together some of the gallery’s artists in unusual and unexpected encounters. Tran Van Thao presents a new series of joyful abstract paintings alongside mysterious and brooding sculptures of paper and metal by Truc-Anh. Nguyen Manh Hung unveils a new painting that humorously retells a familiar fable while Ha Manh Thang shows landscapes that raise ideas about monumentality and doubt. Tiffany Chung and Lien Truong exhibit poetic chronicles of traumatic topographies through different creative processes; and Sandrine Llouquet, in her idiosyncratic disturbing and fantastical style, presents drawings incorporating the pharmaceutical product methylene blue.

In May 2014, the gallery launched Sao La – a non-profit initiative at the HCMC Fine Art Museum.
